Franklin Perry Reidelberger born in Perry County November 11, 1875. He was the son of Henry James and Elizabeth T Redfern Reidelberger. He lived his entire life on the farm where he was born and which his parents had homesteaded. His father died when he was 7 years old and he and his brother, Charles, helped their mother with the farm and to rear the younger children. Frank and Charles,(better known to us as "Uncle Charlie"), lived on the farm in township 4-2 as long as they lived. Charles never married. (Another "bit" of information from my mother, Ruth Keene, was that Uncle Charlie was engaged to a girl who died before they could get married and he never got over her so never married).

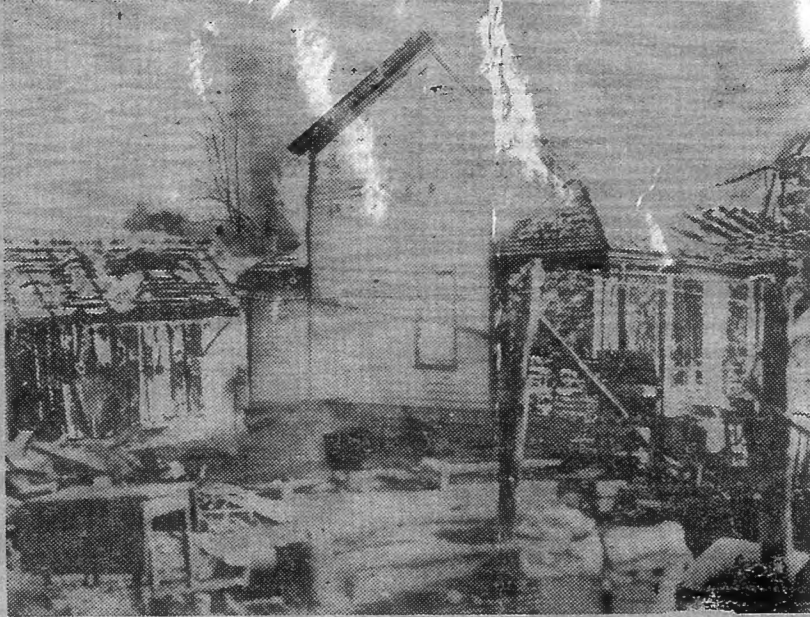

Frank was a musician playing violin for wedding socials, earning enough money to buy his first horse, named "Bay". Frank married Carrye Belle Logan July 2, 1901, making their home on Reidelberger Homestead. Their home was destroyed by fire in 1936 or 1937, from the information we were able to get.

This information was handwritten by Mother in a notebook that I have, which is full of little notes, which fortunately for us, she had the foresight to leave as her legacy to our family. I am so thankful. Lina Rae

FLAMES IN ACTION

A front side view of the rural home of Frank Reidelberger, which burned to the ground last Sunday afternoon. The home was located in Round Prairie, about 8 miles north east of Pinckneyville. Firemen arrived too late to save the structure. The wash house, which was also destroyed can be seen to the readers left of the house—staff photo.

WARREN REIDELBERGER eldest son of Carrie Belle (Logan) Reidelberger and Franklin Reidelberger.

WARREN: Born – May 6, 1902 Died – October 18, 1959.

Married: ROSE ELIZABETH KELLERMAN – December 2, 1922
Rose and Warren are buried in Mueller Hill Cemetery.

They resided in the rural area north of Pinckneyville. Warren and Harmon Kellerman became partners in a sawmill business, which was located north of Pinckneyville. Later Harmon left the partnership to farm and Warren expanded the timber business and moved the sawmill to the Beaucoup area, northeast of Pinckneyville. Warren was a prosperous businessman expanding into farming, trucking, custom threshing, timber and the sawmill business. He especially enjoyed farming, animals and working with horses. His teams of horses were popular attractions at local fairs, winning many awards at fairs throughout the state. He owned the Illinois state champion team one year, but unfortunately one of the horses fell on ice the winter after winning the state honor and had to be destroyed. Dad just couldn't seem to find another horse to work as well with the remaining horse. Dad always said that when a team was so well matched and had worked together, as a team, for a long time the remaining horse just didn't have the heart or the timing to really pull with a new partner. We had many happy summers going to fairs, watching the horses pull, and of course, cheering them on. Dad would even take Zelma and me to the winners' platform to receive the trophies. Naturally, we loved all that attention.

Melvin and Erma attended Nation Elementary School (which was north of Pinckneyville (near where the Oak Grove Church is now located). They had a pony named Spot, which they rode to school everyday. Now, Spot wouldn't move unless the riders made a clucking noise. Well, Melvin couldn't seem to make the right noise so they had to ride double. Mel would guide the pony while Erma clucked to make the pony go. I realize that this sounds strange, but that was the story passed down to me.

Grandpa Reidelberger had a pony named Billy, which uncle Wilfred and uncle Gene rode. Mom always said it was the fastest running pony in the county. I can vaguely remember seeing Billy race at the Pinckneyville fair once. He was a small black pony, but he sure could run and he won. Now I'm not sure whether I saw Billy race or I just heard the story so often that I thought I saw it.

Four children were born to Rose and Warren.

MELVIN H. REIDELBERGER – Born July 18, 1923 – Died April 16, 1997.

Melvin shared dad's love of the farm and especially horses. After returning from the marines after W.W.II, Melvin and one of his buddies decided to buy a race horse and train it. The horse started in one race, ran the wrong way around the track, and that was the end of the race horse business for them.

Melvin worked as a machinist in Rockford for a number of years before returning to Pinckneyville to work at United Electric Mine. He truly loved southern Illinois and it was home to him. He was a gentle, soft-spoken man who loved his family, his country, and the Lord. He always had a warm smile and a kind word for all. He is buried in Mueller Hill Cemetery.

Just wait until they both begin to walk (in opposite directions).

JULIE KRISTIN DAVIS – born January 17, 1970
Married: PETER JOHN STRAND October 1, 1997
They have one child.
JACK DAVIS STRAND – born July 1, 2002

Julie is a speech pathologist and works part-time. The remaining part of her time is spent playing with Jack and teaching him all kinds of wonderful things. I think he will skip elementary school and go straight to high school. He is a very happy baby with a big smile for everyone. Pete is financial officer for Callwave.

Our family was always close and we loved to get together on holidays and any other time we could think of something to celebrate. The food was always good and Melvin, along with Gene and Wilfred could sure put away the food. We never had to worry about what to do with the leftovers for those boys had bottomless stomachs. All the cousins would play games outside until dark, when we would go inside to play games and listen to the adults talk. In the evening the adults would bring out the pinochle cards and play cards until it was time to go home. I learned to play pinochle by sitting on Dad's lap and watching the adults play. If there had been pinochle tournaments back then, the Reidelberger family would surely have been the champions. When the family got together there was always plenty of food, fun, games, and laughter. Those were really the good "OLE" days.

I can remember going to grandma & grandpa's farm. Grandma Carrie always had fresh baked bread and she had really, really thick cream, which she would spread on the fresh bread, sprinkle sugar on top of the cream and give it to us for a snack (very low calorie, of course). I've never seen anyone else make that confection. I think it was Grandma's own special invention and it was delicious. I can also remember setting on Grandpa Reidelberger's lap and he would sing to us (Velma & Zelma) in German. We couldn't understand the words, but we always liked to listen to him sing and sit on his lap.

Now I know this is hard to believe but sometimes Zelma and I would get into trouble because we loved to play with grandpa's crutches and we'd take them outside sometimes, and forget to bring them back to him. When we heard him yell "Girls" "where's my crutches"? We'd suddenly remember and go running to find the crutches and get them to him in a hurry.

The cousins seemed to find the strangest things to brag about or argue over. I can remember Maxine Hester, who always has little feet, would always want to measure her feet against Zelma and mine to see who had the biggest feet. Well, of course Zeb and I were born with bigger feet than Maxine and she said we cheated because she was the oldest and she knew her feet were the biggest. Well, Max, I'll concede you are the oldest, but Zeb and I still have the biggest feet! In fact, I think my family (Velma's) could take the honors for being the tallest and having the biggest feet too. My Steve is six feet, six inches tall and wears a size 15 shoe. The California sunshine sure grows big kids. Disclaimer: If there is any incorrect information in the Warren Reidelberger section of this history, it's because my sources were unreliable!! Velma

Lester Franklin Reidelberger was born February 4, 1918. At the age of 6 months, he was stricken with polio and left paralyzed. He lived with courage and determination and was very successful. He married Helen ? around the late 1940's and they lived in Rockford, Illinois for the duration of their marriage. They were divorced and he married Margaret Campbell Holbrook in Birmingham, Alabama on June 27, 1966 and they made their home on Shade Mountain with her son, Mike Holbrook, who was age 10. He lived there for 15 years, until his death on October 12, 1981 after a short illness. He was a retired salesman for Gilmore Tadge Mfg. Co. of Kansas. He is buried in Jefferson Memorial Gardens in Birmingham. Margaret continued to live in their home until her death around the early 1990's.

Since Uncle Lester has no one to give his book to, we are donating it to the Perry County Historical Society. It will be at the Perry Co Jail Museum so that the Frank and Carrie Reidelberger family will stay in Perry County Records long after we are gone.
